

JMHCC celebrates National Hospital Week May 10-14

Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center (JMHCC) in Elgin will celebrate National Hospital Week with activities May 10-14, including discounted prices on certain lab tests; free blood pressure screenings; and a 5-K walk/run in Elgin, Glen Ullin and Richardton. The theme for the week is “Where Health Comes First.”

“We invite the public to celebrate the week with us, and encourage everyone to take advantage of the screenings we have scheduled,” says JMHCC CEO Theo Stoller.

DISCOUNTED LAB TESTS

Discounted prices on nine different lab tests will be available during clinic hours during the week at the Elgin Community Clinic, Glen Ullin Family Medical Clinic and Richardton Clinic. Specific tests being offered are posted on JMHCC’s Facebook page and website at www.jacobsonhospital.org.

For appointments, call the Elgin Community Clinic at 584-3338, the Glen Ullin Family Medical Clinic at 348-9175 or the Richardton Clinic at 974-3372. All tests must be prepaid.

HEART HEALTH ENCOURAGED

Director of Nursing Jill Feser will be offering free blood pressure screenings on Tuesday, May 11, in downtown Elgin, as part of Elgin’s continued Cardiac Ready Community designation. She will be approaching businesses to offer the free screenings to employees.

COMPLETE WALK/RUN

Throughout the week, a 5-K walk/run will be held during regular clinic hours in Elgin, Glen Ullin and Richardton. Participants must register at the clinic in the community where they plan to complete the walk/run. A course map will be posted at each clinic. Complete the course on your own schedule.

Each participant who registers and completes the course will receive a free T-shirt.

Also planned:

- Throughout the week, entries from the JMHCC National Hospital Week coloring contest from local elementary school students will be displayed in the lower level of JMHCC, in the hallway just off the Elgin Community Clinic.

OTHER OBSERVANCES

JMHCC will be celebrating National Skilled Nursing Care Week May 9-15, too!

Celebrating with the theme, “Together Through the Seasons,” events are planned throughout the week to recognize long-term patients at JMHCC. For details, see the activities calendar at www.jacobsonhospital.org.

National Nurses Week is also May 6-12 and in-house recognition will be shared with JMHCC nurses. If you see one of JMHCC’s nurses, thank them for their dedication!
