Welcoming the new year!

Happy New Year from your friends at JMHCC!

January sparks thoughts of fresh starts, dreaming big, planning goals and finding inner strength in winter stillness. Maybe just taking time to sit back and think after the holidays will help us all find our correct paths.

During the month of January, we have a birthday party planned for Esther on Jan. 6, a trivia challenge on Jan. 13 and a country music social with snacks on Jan. 15.

It is always wonderful to bake during the cold months of winter. The residents and I will be making cheesy garlic bread on Jan. 12 and baking bread on Jan. 27. Our residents continue to have church on Wednesdays and musical entertainment from Janice & friends and the Germans from Russia on Mondays.

The residents always play many games throughout the month and plan to stretch those muscles during chair yoga in the mornings.

We also want to encourage you to consider a donation during Giving Hearts Day, which opens Jan. 12.

Our January calendar is busy, and I want to thank you for all your kindness and support. Wishing you good luck in the New Year and remember to stop and see us!

Love, Lori Miller, JMHCC activities director
