Fun and games in July!

by Brittney Molitor, JMHCC activities director

Hi to all of you! It's difficult to believe July is here already and that the temperature is rising! We are enjoying being in the midst of summer and enjoying the weather outside.

This month marks a number of birthdays. Let's especially honor Winnie, Jane, Ray and Albert. We all hope you all have a memorable birthday!

July 4 is almost here! As long as the weather permits, we also can't pass up watching fireworks from the terrace! There will also be a happy hour this month. Every Wednesday, as usual, our amazing pastors will be in attendance, so feel free to join us for worship!

We are also planning a trip to the Dollar General store in July, so residents can pick up some goodies.

Take a look at our activities calendar and plan to join us for any activities during the month! We welcome visitors and particularly enjoy those who share their time and talents with us!

Love, Brittney Molitor
