Halloween treats galore!

Hello! We are enjoying the cool, crisp temperatures of fall at JMHCC, along with the vibrant colors autumn brings!

Our activities department at JMHCC is planning a bake sale from 1-4:30 p.m. MT Monday, Oct. 6, at the Elgin Public Library. The funds generated from the sale go toward the activities for our residents. Remember to stop and see us that day and pick up some wonderful baked goodies!

If you look at our activities calendar, you will see we will be having a lot of fun during October. We will be celebrating Inez's and Arlene's birthdays on Oct. 2 and Oct. 5. We will be enjoying Halloween with costumes and treats with trick-or-treaters. A pumpkin carving contest, mummy wrap and monster balloon game are all planned, too.

I will be making fry bread Oct. 1, angel food cake treats will be enjoyed Oct. 10 and we will be making chocolate lava cake Oct. 28 to celebrate Chocolate Day.

We will be worshipping with our pastors on Wednesdays and enjoying our favorite games and activities throughout the month.

Do not hesitate to come and see us anytime. We love visitors and enjoy seeing everyone. Again, thank you for your kindness and support.

Love, Lori Miller, JMHCC activities director

Western Party

Yee-haw! With a fistful of Duffy dollars, our kerchiefs expertly knotted and our cowboy hats tugged tight, we had a rootin'-tootin' shindig at Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center during our Western Party!
