Heralding fall's arrival

by Phila Cole, JMHCC activities coordinator

We have had a busy month, starting with celebrating three birthdays for Reiny, Norman and Hannelore. We had pet visiting day. Marcy Pflieger brought her cute little dog, Festus. Everyone enjoyed petting him and spending time with such a cutie. Unfortunately, other pets that signed up weren't able to attend. We will be having pet visiting day once a month going forward.

The residents were able to go on an outing to Dollar General. Their winnings from games were spent on snacks and personal items. I think the purchases were mostly snacks!

We baked butterscotch cookies and enjoyed sharing them with staff. The weather did cooperate to get a few afternoons out on the patio to enjoy the change of colors of the trees. One of our CNAs, Monica, brought in two woolly caterpillars, along with the information about their colors of black and brown. The colors are used as a prediction of the type of winter weather we will have. It was very interesting and sparked a conversation among all of us. We ended the month by painting pictures, and saw the hidden talents that many have.

We have enclosed an activity calendar for you, and we hope you are able to join us sometime. We miss you and can't to see you again. Until then, enjoy the colors and fall weather. Take care!

Love, Phila Cole

Thanks for your donations!

We always appreciate those who remember our residents with donations throughout the year! Cheri Gregor donated a plant stand and we also received a donation of a box full of word search books. Also, thank you for the donation of pumpkin pies! And we always enjoy our visits from the Germans from Russia group. Thank you to everyone who donates, whether that's monetary donations, gifts or your time to visit with residents!

Celebrating birthdays!
